

Figure 12.1 A Rayleigh curve illustrating problem arrival.

doesn't always occur because the system slowly becomes in use. In that case "usage months" may be used along the x-axis. Give the formula which the author proposes for "usage months".

Usage months = (# users actively using the software) x (# months of usage)